Our client has been more than patient with you to date, including by agreeing to multiple extensions of your deadline to answer the complaint in this action, which we commenced in July 2007. Accordingly, if we do not receive your complete, unconditional acceptance of the above terms by 5:00 pm EST, Wednesday, March 5, 2008, we will vigorously move forward with this case.

This letter is written solely for purposes of compromise and settlement pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 408. As such, this letter is written without prejudice to our client's rights, claims and remedies, all which are expressly reserved.

Sincerely,

David Donahue
